Our Spiritual Journey

The Unitarian Universalist theologian John Luther Adams wrote: “The prophetic liberal church is the church in which all members share the common responsibility to attempt to foresee the consequences of human behavior (both individual and institutional), with the intention of making history in place of merely being pushed around by it”.

I doubt that John Luther Adams when talking about the prophetic church was talking about prophecy in the way that I have previously understood it, that of swords and magic and great destinies that shape the world, written in mysterious ancient texts or whispered from the lips of oracles. No, he was talking about creating the world that we imagine.

What is the world that we imagine? What prophetic visions do we share as Unitarian Universalists today, and how are we shouldering the responsibility of making history, instead of being pushed around by it? What risks are we willing to take, as individuals and as a community, to bring that world to fruition?

Imagination is more than daydreams and what ifs. Imagination is envisioning what could be. It is speaking and writing the prophecy, and then being the catalyst that makes it happen. What could this community do if we were to unite to be a truly prophetic church? What imaginings could we dream into reality, if we did it together?

Greetings from Religious Exploration

This month we are Living Love Through Imagination.

As we look through the lens of Love to explore the theme of Imagination, we will find creative ways to live our Values. With art, music, and mother earth as our guide, we strive to plant seeds of inspiration that grow within ourselves, our kids, and our congregation. This church year is reaching the end but growth is rapid under the summer sun.

*Let us make this earth a heaven, right here, right now.
Who knows what existences death will bring?
Let us create a heaven here on earth
where love and truth and justice reign.
Tess Baumberger*

Thank you so much to everyone who participated in our Faith in Action and made cards to send to Point of Pride, an organization that supports trans individuals who are struggling to access health care. We mailed out over 115 cards, sending love and encouragement to those in need.

Classroom Sundays

Elementary: This month the upper elementary aged children will be focusing on our monthly theme of Imagination through stories, activities, crafts, and games. The younger elementary students will be exploring our UU Values with Legos.

Middle School and High School: The youth will continue to explore what role they will play in "Building A Better World", an RPG-based curriculum that will lead youth and adults through the process of creating a game setting as a faith development and community-building exercise reflecting Unitarian Universalist values. Please have participants bring a set of gaming dice to each session if they have them.

Please register your children below for the 2024-2025 Religious Exploration program! This information helps us to plan for the upcoming year.

RE Snack Sign Up Spring 2025

We are looking for people to bring in snacks for RE on Sunday morning. The number of children and youth in our building every Sunday has been growing and, as you all know, they always seem to be hungry! Thank you so much to those of you who have already signed up. If you are able to provide some snacks to supplement the popcorn that would be great!

Join our Religious Exploration Program

We are excited to share that we are planning to expand our Classroom Sundays offerings next year to three elementary aged classrooms, a middle school classroom, and a high school classroom. This means we need even more amazing community members to engage with our Religious Exploration Programming by joining one of those rooms for half of the year.

Being a part of the lives of our young people is deeply meaningful and the effects last a lifetime. This important programming can only happen with the support of the entire community.

Sunday, May 25, "Sanctuary of the Mind: Holding Space for Hope"

Rev. Janet Shortall

In times of cultural, political, and moral constriction - when fear narrows public discourse and authoritarianism demands obedience - our imagination can become a sanctuary. A sacred refuge. Not a place to escape reality, but a place where the soul can breathe, regroup, and reimagine what's possible.

Possible Ponderings

The theme for May is Living Love Through the Practice of Imagination

Possible Ponderings is an offering of ways you might consider engaging more deeply with the theme or reflecting on the ways the idea of Living Love Through the Practice of Imagination shows up in your life.

May 1-10: Has age widened or narrowed your imagination?

May 11-17: Are you someone who imagines everything that can go right? Or everything that can go wrong?

May 18-24: What's the most radical thing you can imagine doing before you die? Are you sure that it's not realistic to live that life you keep imagining?

May 25-31: How close is your current life to the life you imagined for yourself in early adulthood? How would that younger self feel about the life you are living now?
Surprised? Proud? Confused? Curious?

Spring Cleaning!

Our annual spring work day will be Saturday, May 10, from 10-12. We'll be focused on our outside spaces -- weeding, washing, sweeping, and some gutter cleaning for anyone willing to climb!

If you can help for any amount of time, please join us!
Great conversations always happen at these work days, and if enough people are interested, we can order lunch at noon.

Any questions? Contact Sara Catterall

The flow of participants from week to week has created perfect cross-currents of relationships, broadening and securing FUSIT's sense of community. Appreciations

As we nurture a culture of appreciation at FUSIT, let's sing praises to the many people who help make our community the wonderful place it is. Who here at First Unitarian Society of Ithaca have you noticed doing something above and beyond, who has been a quiet unsung hero, or who is doing an exceptional job? It can be a member or staff or friend to our community. Send your submissions to joysandsorrows@uithaca.org.

from JoAnn Kowalski-

"A hearty appreciation to Jackie Jablonski and Phil Terrie who were instrumental in the success of providing seven meals to our fellow community members at the Code Blue shelter over the last several months. Jackie organized the volunteers to shop, prepare and deliver the meals to the shelter. Phil was on hand on the day of the meal preparation and delivery to assist with the logistics of carrying, loading and unloading.

The First Baptist Church shared their kitchen with us to prepare most of the meals. We are grateful to them for the kindness they extended to us by sharing.

There were many volunteers who stepped up to shop for provisions, act as head cook, prepare ingredients and package the food for delivery. This was an act of generosity for the community by our members with love at the center."

Musings on Strategic Planning and a Thank You Message

"To be vibrant and attractive, a congregation needs a shared sense of direction. A strategic plan answers the question, "In what new and different ways will we touch lives in the coming 3 to 5 years?" D. Hotchkiss, Congregational Consulting Group Consultant

From The Coastal Business Journal, Vol.2, Does Strategic Planning Help Churches?: An Exploratory Study (Shah, David & Surawsk, 12/03): "The findings indicate that churches using strategic planning experience greater growth in both attendance and finances."

Recently the Strategic Planning Committee distributed the following three questions, with hopes that your answers will aid in the development of a strategic plan representative of the goals of a majority of FUSIT members:

- 1. How would you describe FUSIT to someone new to the Ithaca community?
- 2. What prompts (or would prompt) you to hold membership in FUSIT? Explain what the leadership could be doing to enhance the experience.
- 3. List 1-3 goals you would like to see in FUSIT's plan for the next 3-5 years.

The responses to open questions and surveys like this, along with congregational conversation, are a crucial part of the spiritual task of deciding as a community where to put our resources and energies.

The members of the Strategic Planning Committee thank you for thoughtful responses. Your voice in the planning process is invaluable and we are grateful for your cooperation and patience with the process.

In the weeks ahead, we look forward to chatting with you in the Parlor after service. Please submit your responses to our three questions by email to Susan Salton at susan.k.salton@gmail.com.

Respectfully submitted by Rene Rogers, for the Strategic Planning Committee: Susan Salton, Marie McRae, Don Rakow, and Sara Catterall

Ready to make a difference as a Trustee?

As one of nine dedicated board members, the Trustee plays a pivotal role in shaping the church's future. This team's mission? To dream big, set inspiring goals, keep an eye on our programs, and build partnerships within the congregation to bring our shared vision to life.

Together, they'll ensure that church leaders-and even each other-stay on track, accountable, and energized to make a meaningful impact. If interested, please contact Elizabeth Bixler at ebixler45@gmail.com.

Please continue to invite any and all people that you know that you believe could find meaning by exploring what the Unitarian Universalist faith can offer.
