UUU Connections

2019 / 2020 Issue No.3

November 2019

Sunday Celebrations
at 10:30 am

Sunday, November 3: *How Does Memory Sustain You?

Rod Howe and Amelia Habicht

Together we will explore the ways that our memories sustain us, lift us up, and hold us back. Lay leaders Rod and Amelia will offer reflections.

Special music by Savage Club Folk Group

Sunday, November 10: *How to Re-Member

Rev. Margaret Weis

What do we need to know about a person before we see them as our kin, a fellow being, or a person worthy of our care? How do we practice radical hospitality and welcome those we do not yet know?

Special music by Burns and Kristy

Sunday, November 17: *Heritage and Memory

Rev. Margaret Weis and Rev. Roger Bertschausen

Together we will reflect on the impact of international engagement and connection with Unitarians, Universalists, and UUs across the globe. What does it mean to be a partner congregation with our UU siblings across the globe?

Special music by FUSIT Choir

Sunday, November 24: *Shifting the Narrative - a Multigenerational Thanksgiving

Rev. Margaret Weis

For generations we have been told a story about the first Thanksgiving that is skewed and inaccurate. Together we will imagine a different story and give thanks for the native land we call home.

Special music by FUSIT Children's Choir

Ministerial Musings

Our theme this month is memory. Often when I think about memories and remembering, I am brought back to my childhood. I would spend hours coloring and doodling and imagining the vast and amazing world. So, this month, I invite you back to your child-like spirit to do the same.

Take some time to color this UU-themed harvest piece and maybe even bring it to FUSIT to share with us all!

Big thanks to Jennie Freiberger, the Administrator for Miami Valley UU Fellowship in Dayton, Ohio, for her awesome design!

Reminder:
Sunday, November 3
Daylight Saving Time Ends

From Susanne Quagliata, Acting Director, Religious Exploration

We've planned for one Multigenerational Service each month this year. These services help our children develop a stronger sense of their identity as Unitarian Universalists by participating in the ritual practices of our church. Knowing how to participate is something that takes time to learn. That learning process can be challenging for our children, pushing them and us outside of our comfort zones. All of our children are at different stages of development, and capable of different levels of engaging with services. Families in our church, particularly those with the youngest children, have told me multigenerational services are working out great, and for some it has been difficult, and many are somewhere in between.

Many of us, particularly those with young children, find it challenging keeping children quiet and still for the whole service. Some of us come from childhood experiences where those were the expectations for children in church, and are mortified if our children are not behaving this way. I want to reassure you that that is not the expectation or the goal at FUSIT.

There have been a few occasions when my kids have not been still or quiet. Positive comments from others about how much joy they get from seeing my kids in service have helped me let go of the expectation that my children be perfect – now every time my kids are acting up in service I try to tell myself that they are helping reassure all of you that it is okay if your kids aren't perfect! And I want to tell you how often in the last couple months people have told me how much having the children's energy and joy in the services has renewed their spirit. The church culture we are trying to create is one that is warm, energetic, and family friendly. Thank you all for contributing to that!

Included below is our RE schedule for November:

November 3: Classroom Sunday

November 10: Creative Sunday

November 17: Classroom Sunday

November 24: Multigenerational Service

What is a UU Dedication Service?

A Child Dedication Service is the way that Unitarian Universalist congregations welcome new children into their lives. Often these ceremonies occur when a child is still a baby, but they can also be done for older children. The service usually occurs during a regular Sunday service, and includes the congregation, as well as the child's family and godparents/guides (if you wish to have them).

Child dedication ceremonies are usually crafted by Rev. Margaret and the parents or guardians, along with the Director of Religious Exploration. Many will include the following elements:

- *A blessing for the new life of the child
- *An expression of the parent or parents' hopes for the child
- *A promise by the congregation to support and nurture the child

We will hold a Dedication Service on December 15th. Please contact Susanne Quagliata at drefusit@gmail.com.

Thanks to...

...Hospitality Team 3, under coordinators Sharon Beltaine and Jesse Koennecke, who helped with greeting, ushering, snack providing, coffee preparation and clean up after the services on October 6 and 13.

Snack providers, please remember to provide a list of potentially sensitive ingredients.

Hospitality teams provide the organized volunteer power to make each week's Sunday service and coffee hour a welcoming time for all who attend. HTs provide opportunities to make real and important contributions to the FUSIT community with a very modest amount of time and effort.

If you are not currently part of a Hospitality Team, please see John Gaines on Sunday or get in touch with him at (607) 898-3943 or at jag222@cornell.edu. Thank you, all, for your efforts to increase our Hospitality!

Soul Matters Drop-In Group Sunday, November 10

Jennifer Streid-Mullen and Susanne Quagliata are running a drop-in Soul Matters group monthly this fall, for anyone interested. Come and delve into a deep sharing and listening to each other on the topic of the month's Soul Matters package, and explore the theme of our Sunday services and RE program at a deeper level. The group format will echo a typical Small Group Ministry session, which will be explained. We will meet Sunday, November 10, 12:15-1:30, in the Mark Pedersen Arch Room. The topic for November is Memory. You are welcome to bring lunch or food to munch on.

Fragrance Free Consideration

Some members of our congregation experience serious allergic reactions to strong fragrances and scents. Please refrain from using them when attending events at First Unitarian Society of Ithaca.

Green Tip from the Environmental Interests Circle

If you have a yard full of fallen leaves and don't use them in a home composting system or as mulch on garden beds, leaving them on the lawn will provide fertilizer to the grass and shelter to overwintering insects, including the caterpillars or pupae of many butterfly species. If they pile up too much, mow them with a mulching blade to reduce their volume.

In May 2018, Roger was named Minister Emeritus of the Fox Valley UU Fellowship.

Possible Ponderings

The theme for November is Memory. Possible Ponderings is an offering of ways you might consider engaging more deeply with the theme or reflecting on the ways the idea of Memory shows up in your life. These will also be printed in the order of service each week.

November 3-9: How has your memory changed as you've gotten older?

November 10-16: What memory will die with you if you don't pass it on?

November 17-23: What memories could you create by living a certain way?

November 24-30: What if the question isn't, "Did it really happen that way?" But instead, "Why do you want to remember that it happened that way?"

November 7th - 7:00 pm showing of the film "Power To Heal"

Power to Heal is an hour-long public television documentary that tells a poignant chapter in the historic struggle to secure equal and adequate access to healthcare for all Americans. Central to the story is the tale of how a new national program, Medicare, was used to mount a dramatic, coordinated effort that desegregated thousands of hospitals across the country in a matter of months. This is a film you won't want to miss. Please join us in the Parlor for the viewing and discussion afterward.

This showing is co-sponsored by the FUSIT group studying racism, the FUSIT Social Justice Council, the Calvary Baptist Church, and the Finger Lakes for New York Health Group.

Upcoming Race and Racism Meeting November 26

Have you noticed ... ?

- race and racism are front and center in American society these days?
- racial issues have been very much in our local news recently?
- our own congregation is not exactly racially diverse?

In America, most white people don't ever have to think about race. But most people of color face racial prejudice and racially-based injustice every single day. If you are concerned, outraged, or just want to better understand the role of race in our town, our country, our world, come to the monthly meetings for the series on Race and Racism that are held on the 4th Tuesday of every month at 6:30 pm in the Parlor. All are welcome.

If you would be interested in helping to lead or facilitate one session, or if you would like to be added to an email list to receive future FUSIT race-related information, contact Beth Howard at beth4howard@gmail.com.

Making Lunches for the Day Center

We need one more volunteer to make and deliver 15 bag lunches to the St. John's Community Services Day Center on November 5th.

Volunteers may be individuals, families, or groups of any kind. You would buy supplies, make the lunches no more than 24 hours before delivery, and deliver them between 9:30 and 11:30 am to 618 W. State Street in Ithaca.

Each lunch includes a sandwich, a piece of soft fruit, and a cookie or other small dessert, and should be substantial since the recipients may not get another full meal that day. All foods should be easy to chew.

The Day Center is a drop-in assistance center for Ithacans who are homeless or otherwise in need. FUSIT provides 60 lunches (four volunteers making 15 lunches each) on the first Tuesday of every month.

Please contact Jackie Jablonski at jackiejab@me.com for specific sandwich preparation instructions, if you have questions and /or would like the Social Justice Council to reimburse your expenses.

Contributions Requested for Memory Collage

For the month of November the FUSIT Aesthetics Team is putting together a collage for the front of the Sanctuary representing some of the significant memories that we carry with us. Ideas for contributions include:

- PHOTOS – we can print anything you send by email. For example, if you don't want to lend a special photo, take a picture of it with your phone and email the image.
- WORDS - maybe you have a favorite saying in your family, a quote, place name, or recipe that represents a memory. Send it on and we'll print it!
- OTHER – anything you have that represents a significant memory is useable so long as it can be pinned to the large hanging support at the front of the Sanctuary. Maybe a piece of fabric? A drawing? Your inspiration is welcome.

Feel free to ask if you have any questions. I will be at church the next few Sundays so if there are items you want to give me in person, I'd be happy to accept them! If emailing, please send to me at ML16@cornell.edu. Note that Susanne Quagliata is coordinating a parallel activity in RE so that our collage include kids' memories too.

*Looking forward to your contributions!
Magdalen Lindeberg*

EMERGENCY GUIDELINES - The Basics

The First Unitarian Society of Ithaca (FUSIT) is an active, vibrant, and busy place. When we are engaged, especially in a place we love, and with people so familiar to us, we can become complacent to safety issues. All risk cannot be eliminated, but we can all help reduce risk to a minimum.

Following are some general guidelines for us to follow which will help protect our building, congregants, guests, and kids. In-depth policy and procedures for potential emergencies can be found in the church office, and website.

To borrow a phrase, if you see something - say something! Each of us has an important role to play in keeping an eye out for potential problems. What we can do:

- For a severe emergency, CALL 9-1-1
- Medical emergency
  - Fire/smoke
  - Hostile or aggressive persons

If it is safe to do so, alert a Safety Team member, the minister, usher, or other church officials.

For general safety concerns, contact a Safety Team member, the minister, usher, or other church officials. Possible issues:

- Unsafe kitchen activities (sharp knives, ovens, burn risks, slippery floors)
- Broken railings or steps - other trip/fall hazards
- Clutter or clogged passages/hallways
- Lost person/child
- Non-functional lighting

Other basics you should know:

If a building evacuation is required due to fire or other emergency:

- Proceed to Aurora Street sidewalk, and turn left (away from town)
- Walk to the 2nd parking lot on the left
- This is the gathering spot for kids and adults
- Be prepared to assist those who need help, or ask for help if needed.
- Notice where the fire extinguishers are!
- Notice where your nearest exit is!

In the extremely unlikely event of a violent intruder, the order of response is: RUN - HIDE - FIGHT

FUSIT is situated very close to the Ithaca Police and Fire Departments, and medical assistance. Be prepared to follow the instructions of these emergency professionals.
