UUU Connections

2019 / 2020 Issue No. 7

March 2020

Sunday Celebrations at 10:30 am

Sunday, March 1: *The Practice of Generosity - Gifts -Rev. Margaret Weis

This five-part series will focus on the ways we bring our love out into the world in a spirit of generosity, and how it is received. What are the gifts we have to give to our community, this congregation and the world? How do we live into a sense of abundance, gratitude and generosity?
Special music by UUUU and Friends

Sunday, March 8: *No Person is An Island -Rev. Margaret Weis

It has been said that none of us travels this life's journey on our own. Indeed, for many of us, community is what helps us get through the challenges of life. Together we will explore how our journeys are buoyed by our relationships, our values, and our hope for the future.
Special music by David Coester, guitar

Sunday, March 15: *Time, Religion and a Ford Econoline Van -Guest speaker David Salomon

First Unitarian member David Salomon recounts a trip into the Southwest, ancestry, architecture, and the afterlife, and arrives at an understanding of our UU religion as one that holds sacred the care for that which has come before us, and that which endures after our individual journeys have ended.
Special music by FUSIT Choir

Sunday, March 22: *A Journey Toward Goodness -Guest speaker Sarah Wolff

A graduate of Chicago Theological Seminary, and current college English professor Sarah Wolff will offer reflections on the concepts of inherent goodness, sin, and the necessity of collective liberation through the lens of poetry, language, and the ways inequality plays out in our societal structures.
Special music by VOICES Multicultural Choir

Sunday, March 29: *Packing for the Journey -Rev. Margaret Weis

In this multigenerational service we will explore together what sustains us on our life's journeys. What are the items, memories, or stories that we carry with us in our lives? How do they inform our outlook and our path?
Special music TBD

Ministerial Musings

*We build on foundations we did not lay
We warm ourselves on fires we did not light
We sit in the shade of trees we did not plant
We drink from wells we did not dig
We profit from persons we did not know*

*This is as it should be.
Together we are more than any one person could be.
Together we can build across the generations.
Together we can renew our hope and faith in the life that is yet too unfold.
Together we can heed the call to a ministry of care and justice.*

Reverend Peter Raible, Unitarian Universalist minister

Lately I have been reflecting on the path that was imagined for me before I was even born. What are the bricks that were laid long before I came to be? What were the paths already trod that helped to influence me before I breathed my first breath?

I think of the people in my family who valued education and knowledge. I think of the generations of religious professionals who sought meaning in the world's beauty and in its suffering. I think of the artists and activists who did their part in their lifetimes just to leave what would be a lasting imprint on this world and its institutions. I think of my DRE in my home church, who really saw me and gave me a voice early-on.

Without these people and their commitment to love, justice, and meaning-making, I may not be the person I am today.

We are fortunate to be part of a faith tradition and congregation with a solid foundation in the values we hold dear. This place and its people have been here for over 150 years. The faces may have changed, the issues of the time have changed, and styles and methods of leadership and worship have changed. But our core values remain the same - to be a presence of liberal religion, vibrant music, invigorating youth programs and justice-seeking people in Ithaca and beyond.

Our mission to create connections, find inspiration, and engage the world is rooted in our foundation of Unitarian Universalism. Indeed, we stand on the shoulders of giants.

Preparing for Transition

As many of you know, I took on the role of Acting Director of Religious Exploration in August 2018. Working with our wonderful children, dedicated volunteers, and amazing staff has inspired me. I am ready to transition out of this role and return to being an active member of our faith community. However, before that happens we need to do our part to set our next DRE up for success. One of the best ways we can do this is to ensure we have a strong RE Team.

Our current RE Team of Jill Barbuti-vanLeuken, Leah O'Connor, Andrew Quagliata, and Kim Wilkinson have contributed in many ways in the last two years. But, the RE Team will need fresh energy and ideas to support our next DRE. Please consider joining the RE Team this year to help with our transition.

Included below is a list of RE Team member responsibilities:

- Attend monthly RE Team meeting.
- Staff the RE Table before and after service once a month.
- Contribute your talents in at least one of the following ways:
  - Volunteer to be a Lead, Assistant, or Substitute Teacher in the RE program.
  - Lead or coordinate a Creative Sunday.
  - Assist with planning one RE event annually (e.g., chalice making).
  - Act as a liaison between the DRE and Youth Group, OWL, Coming of Age or Crossing Paths.
- Ensure RE programming reflects UU Principles and represents the interests and needs of the Congregation.

Contact me today if you have any questions, would like to learn more, or to express your interest in joining the RE Team.

As we begin our pledge season, I encourage you to think about the people and institutions that have helped to form you in your journey. Which are those that have withstood the challenge of time? Some may be indirectly related and others more clearly bound to you and your life. I know that FUSIT is one of those places for me and for all of us who continue to gather in the name of love and justice amidst a beautiful and broken world.

I hope you'll consider continuing that legacy with your generosity and commitment to this place and its ministry.

See you on Sunday!
 Rev. Margaret

Side with Love Collection for March

During the month of March we will be collecting menstruation products. Some of the most needed items amongst people experiencing financial insecurity and homelessness are menstruation products. Maxi pads and tampons are not covered by SNAP benefits, are expensive, and really, are an absolute necessity for women and girls every month. During Women's History Month we will be collecting maxi pads, tampons, and reusable and disposable menstrual cups during our first hymn all five Sundays in March! These items will be distributed to various local organizations: Planned Parenthood, The Advocacy Center, and SJC (formerly Rescue Mission).

Joys and Sorrows

...Jan and John Pfeiderer after the passing of John's mother, Pauline Pfeiderer, on October 19, in California.

Thanks to...

...everyone who donated money during the Shared Plate collection on January 26th for ABBA House. We raised $1328!

Spark the Magic

giving with love

It doesn't take a sorcerer to see that love is a gift often given and received at First Unitarian. But it does take an annual pledge campaign to make sure that the First Unitarian Society of Ithaca has the resources to achieve all the inspiring things that are planned for this year. We are growing, and that means we need to grow our giving. Registrations for Religious Education enrollment are up 72 percent. And attendance on Sundays is up 30 percent.

This week you should be receiving a letter about this year's campaign and your pledge card in the mail. If you can, bring your completed pledge card to church on Pledge Sunday, March 8. Then join in the magical celebration of dancing your pledge down the aisles and up to the Annex for a Magic of Ministry Feast. If that sounds too strenuous, make your pledge online or by mail or phone, but do come and enjoy the lunch and some enchanted fellowship.

Why is your annual pledge of support so important and why do we need it now? Annual pledges help us plan for the year ahead. The majority of our society's income (75%) comes from our annual gifts. The board will create next year's budget based on our expected revenue. The budget is prepared in April and presented to the congregation at the annual meeting in May. How much we can plan to do next year depends on the success of our pledge drive this spring. You can pay your pledge weekly, monthly or all at once over the next year.

*Your support helps us to minister
our magic to others in our congregation and beyond.*

Questions about pledging? Contact Sharon Costianes (sharon.costianes@gmail.com) or David Salomon (dsalomonor@gmail.com).

Want to pledge online? Go to our pledge page <http://bit.ly/SparkMagic> or, abracadabra, you can text the amount of your gift to (607) 260-6616 with the word "spark" (e.g. "$150 spark") to designate it for this year's campaign!!!

*Sincerely,
Sharon Costianes, David Salomon, and the entire Stewardship Team*

Possible Ponderings

The theme for March is Journey. Possible Ponderings is an offering of ways you might consider engaging more deeply with the theme or reflecting on the ways the idea of Journey shows up in your life. These will also be printed in the order of service each week.

March 1-7: What sparks magic in you? How can you do more of it?

March 8-14: What makes this congregation different from other groups you are part of? How does it help you on your life's journey?

March 15-21: What gets you here on Sunday morning? What gets in the way of you making it to this place each week?

March 22-28: What social justice issues make you come alive?

March 29-April 5: How has your journey been impacted positively by other people? Have you told them that?

Have you started thinking about attending the Unitarian Universalist Association's General Assembly this year? It's going to be in nearby Providence, Rhode Island from June 24-28, 2020. Click here to start planning your time there exploring this year's theme of Rooted, Inspired, & Ready!

We are in touch with our theological roots, we are engaged in transforming our faith, and we are fired up to take action in the wider world.

This year's General Assembly coincides with the 400th anniversary of the Mayflower's arrival. This will give us a chance to wrestle with our history of colonialism, invite us into truth-telling, and center on indigenous people.

The Mark Pedersen Memorial GA Fund is available to help defray the costs of registration and/or travel for those with financial need. Contact office@uuithaca.org before March 1st for an application and further information.
